Alma was born in McComb, MS, on January 24, 1955, to Karie Lee McKnight and Margaret McKnight.

She graduated from McComb High School and later pursued her educational career at the Mississippi University for Women in Columbus, MS, with a degree in journalism. Alma was employed at Enterprise Journal in McComb when she moved to Jackson, where she worked at The Clarion-Ledger and later as a sales representative for Cowboy Maloney. She finally settled at Clear Channel radio stations as a sales executive until she retired.

Alma was a great daughter, sister, aunt, and friend. Although she enjoyed working in sales, her greatest joy was being with her family. Alma was a wonderful confidante; a person you could always depend on for great advice. She always gave 100% in anything she did.

She was preceded in death by her father, Karie Lee McKnight; mother,

Margaret McKnight-Dillon; grandparents, Ellen McKnight & George McKnight; and sister, Dorothy Dean Williams (*Melvin Williams).

She leaves to cherish her memories her siblings, Pearl Johnson-McKnight (James Johnson), of Detroit, Michigan; Charles Lee (Cheryl) McKnight of Magnolia, MS; Lee Artis McKnight; and Joyce Marie McKnight, both of McComb, MS, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

“ My deepest condolences to the family. May God comfort you.

I knew Alma during my time at the Clarion-Ledger. I was the receptionist/secretary at the time. I'd be the first one to see everyone when they came in the office. She always had a smile on her face every time she walked in the room. She was the nicest person.

So, I say to you "keep smiling", "keep shining", as I think about the song by Dionne Warwick.

You go on! God is still in charge. May his grace and mercy be with you all through this loss of a loved one.
