“ Good morning, Bev!

You have traveled the road that we all have to travel at some point. But you are now residing with your Heavenly Father, earthly mother, father, sister, and the host of other family members and friends. I am going to miss you so much, especially our sister calls on Sunday mornings. You were such a loving, caring, thoughtful, and nurturing big sister. I am going to miss my crazy phone calls to you about how to cook this or what to do about this or that. Now that you have crossed over into the heavenly light of heaven, spread your heavenly wings and fly, watch over your husband, children, grandchildren, and siblings. This is not our last conversation, as I will always talk to you and I am not saying goodbye but see you later.

As I say I love you, I can hear your “I love you more.”
