“ Disco Dex you were a good friend and will be missed. Served on the USS Tarawa in San Diego and spent many nights out in the town and good friends on board. Will remember your outgoing spirit and the dancing you use to do and all the time and music you use to play. We called each other James for some reason. RIP Walker guess I will take the name James now. Fair winds and following seas.

“ My heart aches to think that I won't see Dexter again But I'll always remember that last hug I gave him. He knew how much I loved him. And as the grandmother of his daughter, I promise to always keep his memory alive so that Destiny will always know how much he loves her. Fly high DexterWalker. Someday we will meet again. And I will say thank you for being a great father.
