“ Kim, Tachema and Lil Freddie and family, I would want to be there in person to share with you in respect of your mother Sarah. Sarah and I became friends some 40 years ago and she was one who could always light up the crowd with her beautiful smile and playful comments. I was a maid in her wedding to my cousin Freddie (Butch). Time and distance separated our paths, but the fond memories of Sarah’s smile, beautiful made up face, neatness and candle like personality still remains with me! So now, let us continue to hold to ALMIGHTY GOD’S UNCHANGING HAND!
